FAQ's

How do I confirm my booking?

As soon as we receive the 25% booking deposit, your booking will be confirmed for your event date. Prior to receiving the deposit, no items will be confirmed or held for that date.

How do I make payment?

We accept eftpos, cash, Credit card or bank transfer – payment details are listed on the bottom of your invoice/booking.

When is the balance due for my booking?

By the Monday prior to your event date

Do I have to pay a bond?

Yes – all bookings require a bond of $50 which is refundable upon return of your items. However, your items will be checked to ensure they have been returned in a satisfactory condition. Once this is confirmed, your bond will then be refunded within 10 business days.

How long is your length of hire?

4 days (extensions may be permitted upon request) * some items are one day only

I am having my wedding on a Friday – when will my Marquee be set up?

We set up our Marquee's usually two days prior to the event, however we do take into consideration the weather, travel time and location so this may be adjusted dependant on these factors.

Can we return our items on a Sunday?

Yes you can – please arrange with management during the booking process for out of hours drop off or collection.

How much will freight be?

This is dependant on distance travelled and is on a case by case basis.

Can we collect the items ourselves?

Yes you can. We do have certain items that must be transported by us due to the nature of the item, please check with us when booking.

Do I need to wash the linen before I return it?

No – cleaning is included of the hire price

How clean do I need to return the glassware and catering items?

All items must be thoroughly cleaned and dried prior to returning. Should items be in a dirty condition, additional charges may apply.

Will you set up my tables and chairs at the venue?

This is not part of the hire. We provide a door to door delivery and collection service. Please ensure you have the hire items stacked up and ready for collection at the arranged time. Should we have to pack down tables and chairs at the end of your event for collection, additional charges may apply.

Do I need to provide help with the delivery of the hire items?

Yes we would appreciate the assistance – especially in cases where access to the location is difficult or a distance away from the drop off point where items must be carried across to the event location

Can I dry hire a Marquee?

Yes you can – we have a range of sizes available to collect and erect yourself, the largest being 5m x 10m.

Do I need a permit for my Marquee?

All Marquees over 100m² require a permit – we can arrange this on your behalf however this must be confirmed as part of the booking and we will request information regarding the site.

Do I need to re-fuel the heater?

Yes you do – all diesel heaters are supplied with a full tank of diesel and must be returned with a full tank – if not, charges will apply.

What happens if something breaks whilst I am hiring it?

This is viewed on a case by case basis however for example - for items such as glassware or crockery, you will be invoiced on a per piece basis. For larger items you will be required to pay the insurance excess to cover the replacement cost.
